

Dr. Arijit Das receives 'Best Researcher Award

Times News

Agartala, Aug 07: Dr. Arijit Das, Assistant Prof of Bir Bikram Memorial College, Agartala achieved "Best Researcher Award in the 7th International Scientist Awards on Engineering, Science, and Medicine, July 4-5 Coimbatore organized by VD-GOOD Professional Association, Chennai, India.

Previously these awards were achieved by Dr. Pratibha Yadav from IIT Delhi; Dr. Manish Kumar from BITS PILANI; Prof. Jitendra Kumar from IIT Kharagpur; Dr. Ravi Pratap Singh from NIT Jalandhar; Prof. M. Serajuddin from University of Lucknow; Prof. Anjay Kumar Mishra (RG Score 31.88) from Madan Bhandari Memorial Academy Nepal and Pokhara University, School of Engineering, etc. Dr. Das achieved this award for his 52 research publications having Research Gate (RG) readers almost 46,000, three published books (one from Cambridge); two copyrights from the Union government, one major research project under SERB DST, New Delhi; nine published book chapters in the Library of University of California, Davis; two education tools in the minerazzi.com, US indexed in the City College of New York, almost 20 National and international seminar and conferences etc.

This award ceremony is a unique international platform that's a confluence of all stakeholders—Industry, Academia, Researchers, Innovators, Regulators – coming together to meet and share their knowledge among themselves from all around the world.