Dr Arijit Das included in Wikipedia and Google scholar citation

By Our Correspondent

 Agartala, Jun 10, 2015 : Tripura's renowned chemistry scholar and head of the department of chemistry in Ramthakur college has been finally included in the Wikipedia the free encyclopaedia, the all-encompassing online encyclopaedia on all subjects and personalities. Mr Jimmy Wales, renowned scholar of chemistry and president of Wikia Inc for England and UK took personal interest in having Dr Arijit Das's name included in the Wiki encyclopaedia.

Apart from this, Dr Das also figures now in the Google Scholar citation as a renowned chemistry scholar and professor. This emerges clearly when one goes for a search in the Google with the line 'history of Dr Arijit Das , chemistry scholar'. Dr Das has so far devised fourteen new methodologies and 34 new formulae for easier study of chemistry. He was offered membership of the famous American Chemical Society (ACS) and included as member in 2013. Inclusion as member of ACS is a dream of all chemistry scholars but very few ultimately fulfill the exacting standards for inclusion but Dr Das was offered the membership by ACS authority. Besides, Dr Arijit Das is also reviewer of major chemistry journals in the world and all authoritative chemistry journals in India.
