Dr Arijit Das secures recognition and congratulation from University of California , Davis

By Our Correspondent

Agartala, Oct 14, 2015 : Dr Arijit Das who has created ripples in the study and learning of chemistry at the global level has been appreciated by the University of California, Davis for the brilliance of the 16 new methodologies and 36 new formulae devised by him. Dr Delmar S.Larsen , associate professor of chemistry in the university has sent an effusive congratulatory message to Dr Arijit Das in the university's pad.

" I have gone through your all methodologies (Predicting the Bond-Order of Diatomic Species without MOT, Hybridization of Simple Molecules and Heterocyclic Compounds, Magnetic Behavior of Diatomic Species, Bond-Order of Oxides based Acid Radicals, Evaluating Spin Multiplicity, Identifying Aromatic and Anti-Aromatic Compounds, Calculating of p-bonds, s-bonds, single and double bonds in Straight Chain and Cycloalkene Systems) and found that they are very much helpful for teaching at undergraduate, senior undergraduate as well as post graduate level students to make chemical education metabolic, simplest and time economic. I have attached the current ChemWiki URLs that link to your content in this letter" said Dr Delmar Larsen in his letter. He also said that Dr Das's methodologies and formulae were evoking massive global response from students and teachers of chemistry studying Chemwiki.

Apart from this, Dr Arijit Das has been showered with warm congratulations for his success in chemistry by leading Indian authorities on chemistry like Dr Nilasish Nandi, Dr G.N.Mookherjee, Dr Arabinda Kumar Das, Dr V.Jagannadham and Dr Pratim Chatterjee.

It may be mentioned here that University of California , Davis is 23rd among top ,universitries of the world as per rankings made in 2015. The first five universities of the world are all in the USA in the following order : 1) Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 2) Stanform Univesity, 3) Harvard University, 4) Calofornia , Berkely and 5) Cornell University. The famous Oxford and Cambridge universities of England occupy 17th and 20th positions in the rankings while from India only IIT, Mumbai has been ranked 135th in the list of top two hundred universities of the world.
