Tripura chemistry professor Arijit Das to figure in 'Asia Pacific Whos Who' in profile

By Our Correspondent

Agartala, Feb 22, 2016 : Tripura's celebrated chemistry professor Dr Arijit Das who invented fourteen new methodologies and thirty six new formulae in chemistry is going to be highlighted in a profile in the prestigious Delhi-based 'Asia Pacific Who's Who' in its 14th issue to be published in the last week of April. This magazine, edited by Ravi Bhusan and in circulation since the year 1998, had earlier profiled former prime minister Dr Manmohan Singh . The publisher of the magazine is RIFACIMENTO, International which publishes specialised reference works.

Dr Das, an assistant professor of Chemistry in Agartala based government-run Ramthakur College, had invented 14 new methodologies and 36 new formulae on chemistry between the years 2011-2015. He was offered membership of the prestigious American Chemical Society (ACS) in December 2013 and accepted it to become the first ACS member from the entire northeast. His works were also included through digitisation in the 'Chemwiki', world's biggest digital library run by California , Davis university and visited by 8 crore people annually in August 2015.

'It is a great honour for me because being profiled in 'Asia Pacific Who's Who' is something special ; the magazine authority had contacted me day before yesterday by a letter and informed that my profile would be published ; they have got all the details about me from internet and Chemwiki' said Dr Arijit Das. He said that he would shortly visit the USA and get in touch with the ACS authority.
